FADE IN:

1 EXT. GOLDEN GATE PARK - DAY - QUINN

1 moving through the park to meet Arturo.

QUINN
(in greeting) Professor.

ARTURO
Mr. Mallory. How was your weekend?

QUINN
I never realized how many lies a person tells in the course of a day.

ARTURO
One of the more interesting worlds we've landed on. One, however, I am not eager to revisit.

Oddly, both men wear distinctive black metallic chokers, although neither makes reference to it..

QUINN
The others are cutting it kind of close, aren't they?

ARTURO
(off the timer)
Not to worry. We still have a few minutes.
(then) Here comes Rembrandt now --

ANGLE - A CONVERTIBLE

pulls in at the curb. Rembrandt's in the passenger seat.
(He wears a choker.) Beside him, in the driver's seat, an attractive woman (also wearing a choker), her hair held down under a scarf --

WOMAN
I guess this is it, then.

REMBRANDT
I guess so.
(tender; sincere)
You're an amazing woman, Angelica.

REMBRANDT (cont'd)
(then, wiping a tear or two)
It breaks my heart to say
"good-bye".
(wince of pain)
I mean -- if it wasn't for my situation, I'd be thinking of settling down, right here, with you.

He winces again as a small jolt of electricity courses his body --

REMBRANDT
I'm not gonna get away with any of this, am I?

ANGELICA
It's sweet of you to try to lie to me, but if you keep it up, that collar's gonna electrocute you.
(then)
"A" for effort, though.

She kisses him one last time.

ANGLE - QUINN AND ARTURO

looking on --

ARTURO
(re: the timer)
Counting down... in a few short minutes we'll be on our way.
(then)
And none too soon, I might add.

QUINN
No argument from me.
(then) Smartest thing we ever did was split up for the week.

As Rembrandt approaches --

REMBRANDT
It's one thing to have openness in a relationship --
(then)
But these lie detector collars make all my best sweet talk just about impossible.

REMBRANDT (cont'd)

(then) I'm amazed' that girl is still speaking to me.

WADE (O.S.)

Guys --

WADE'S

hustling towards them.

WADE

We got problems. Big time.

ARTURO

Did you bring the wire cutters, as I asked you?

WADE

No time, Professor.

(then)
C'mon -- Let's get out of here.

QUINN

What happened?

And as they move off urgently, deeper into the park --

CUT TO:

2 EXT. STREET - A NEWS VAN

2 screeches to a stop. A camera man and a sound guy scramble out, in pursuit of their leader, none other than --

GERALDO RIVERA

he's dressed for street safari. (He also wears a choker.)

GERALDO

Move it. C'mon -- we're gonna miss the shot --

As the news crew hustles after him -- explaining --

WADE

-- I met him at this dumb art opening. With this crazy collar on, there wasn't any way to lie. The guy asks so many questions, pretty soon he wormed the whole story out of me.

QUINN

You told Geraldo Rivera about sliding?

WADE

What was I supposed to do? Lie and get zapped in front of two hundred and fifty art patrons?

REMBRANDT

What's the worst that can happen? He goes on T.V. and tells the world about us? We'll be long gone by then.

GERALDO (O.S.)

Over there --

QUINN

Uh oh --

Sliders react --

GERALDO AND NEWS CREW

coming up over the rise --

ARTURO

(sour) Wonderful.

As now, playing for the news cameras --

GERALDO

(offering hand]
Quinn Mallory, boy genius.
(to Arturo)
And you must be the illustrious Professor Arturo and "Crying Man" Brown --
(then)
Hope it's okay, I've come to watch the slide. Wade told me all about it.

(then)
Sounds pretty incredible.

3 CONTINUED: (2)

ARTURO

Four... three... two... one --

Arturo's activated the gate, under --

GERALDO

My God! It's fabulous.
(to news guy)
Are you getting this?

The news guy is too astonished to respond --

GERALDO

(to Quinn)
Anything to say to the people of America before you go?

QUINN

No comment.

And he slides. Arturo's next --

WADE

You have no shame at all, do you?

GERALDO

(cheerful) None whatsoever.

Wade jumps --

REMBRANDT

So long, man. I hope in this world... there really was something in Al Capone's vault.

Chuckling gleefully, Rembrandt slides.

GERALDO

(to camera man)
I'm going in!

Off the cameraman's astonishment --

GERALDO

(grabs the mini-cam)
This is my ticket back to prime time, Eddie.
(then) Call the station -- I'm bringing back the mother of all exclusives!

He takes a deep breath, psyches himself up. Leaps into the roaring void and the gate closes behind him.

ACT ONE

FADE IN:

4 EXT. FOREST - NEW WORLD - THE SLIDERS

4 tumble one-by-one down onto -- an enormous crater in the earth. At first you'd think a meteor'd hit, but now we see -- about double the size of a beachball --

AN EGG

ARTURO

Good God!

GERALDO (O.S.)

Look out --!

And as the intrepid news gatherer comes blasting out of the worm hole, flailing his arms and legs as he lands almost on top of Wade, sending her sprawling -- --

GERALDO

Whoa! What a ride.
(then, to Wade)
You okay, sweetheart?

Wade is pulling herself up. And now we see a viscous ichor dribbling all down her fingers. Geraldo's momentum shoved her into the enormous egg, and she's left a little hole the size of her fist in the shell.

WADE

OhmiGod -- Look what you did.

REMBRANDT

(to Geraldo)
What the hell are you doing here, man? Are you crazy?

GERALDO

I may host talk shows but my roots are still in investigative journalism. I plan to cover the story of the slide, then tell the world about it on pay-per-view.

QUINN

Oh yeah? And how do you plan to do that?

4 CONTINUED:

4

GERALDO

What are you talking about?

WADE

We can't control the slide. We have no way of knowing where we're going, so there's no way of sending you back.

GERALDO

(to Wade)

You never told me that.

WADE

Well, who thought you were coming with us for a world exclusive?

QUINN

(reacts)

Guys --

All stop. Something from a distance (though not a great distance) --

AN OTHERWORLDLY ROAR (O.S.)

It's a sound we've never heard in nature --

REMBRANDT

What the hell is that?

Quinn clammers up the bank of the nest to see --

REVERSE ANGLE:

ALLOSARUS POV - QUINN

as seen from a tree-top height. The image may be stylized (perhaps black and white, perhaps fish-eye). The other Sliders move into range -- and now we see the broken egg -- and as the Allosarus roars in anguish --

REVERSE ANGLE:

5 EXT. NEST - SLIDERS react, panicked --

WADE

OhmiGod! It thinks we broke its egg!

5 CONTINUED:

5

QUINN
Take off!

WADE Where!?

As they clamber over the side of the nest, all but Geraldo who's taping the advancing horror with a mini-cam --

GERALDO
Un-freaking real!

REMBRANDT
You trying to get yourself killed, man?
(then) Come on!

ALLOSARUS' - POV - GERALDO AND REMBRANDT

scramble off into the undergrowth.

ANOTHER ROAR (O.S.)

punctuates the action as we --

CUT TO:

6 EXT. FOREST - THE SLIDERS

6 and Geraldo are running pell mell in and among the trees of what (if they had time to stop and examine it) they would realize is an ancient first growth forest.

WADE, ARTURO

are in the lead.

ARTURO
Don't look back! Keep running!

QUINN, REMBRANDT, GERALDO

as they struggle through the undergrowth. From the sound of the creature, the thunder of it's footsteps, it's clear we are dealing not just with an angry adversary, but a fast one also.

QUINN
(indicates) Up ahead!

6 CONTINUED:

6

ANGLE - A HILL

rocky and overgrown. About three quarters of the way up --

A CAVE MOUTH

clearly visible --

QUINN

A cave. We've got to get up there!

REMBRANDT

What if there's more of them up there?

QUINN

If there are, they've got to be smaller. I'll take my chances.

ARTURO

meanwhile makes the mistake of looking back over his shoulder -- doesn't see the heavy rocks right in his path and he stumbles --

ARTURO

Damn!

QUINN

sees what happened --

QUINN

(to the others)
Keep going!

As he starts to navigate down the treacherous hillside towards his fallen friend --

ARTURO

(in pain)
It's my ankle.

As now --

THE ALLOSARUS

a full-frontal enormous dinosaur comes crashing out of the forest towards them --

QUINN

Can you walk?

(CONTINUED)

6

ARTURO (trying to) Damn it.

QUINN
Rembrandt --! Hurry!

Rembrandt's skittered down the slippery slope-face to assist, and together they haul Arturo up the hill. What neither of the three realize in the course of the noble rescue is -- has tumbled out of Arturo's pocket. It's lying there on the ground where he fell.

THE TIMER

CUT TO:

7 INT. CAVE MOUTH - QUINN, REMBRANDT

7 assisting Arturo to safety. The adit is only three or-four feet high, meaning an adult has to stoop to get inside.

REMBRANDT
Almost there.

POV - THROUGH MINICAM

the foregoing. Geraldo's videotaping the rescue --

GERALDO (O.S.)
This is incredible.
(then)
An extraordinary display of heroism that make this particular reporter proud to be an American --

REMBRANDT
Put that damn thing down and help us!

Geraldo does so --

WADE
You all right, Professor?

ARTURO
Ow ow ow...

Quinn helps him to a sitting position --

(CONTINUED)

7 CONTINUED:

7

QUINN
I think he really did something to himself here.

WADE
He's bleeding!

ARTURO
I'm fine.

Wince. The collar goes off.

REMBRANDT
Well, this world's one for the annals, that's for sure.

GERALDO
(as he tapes)
-- following a hair's breadth escape -- and apparently safe for the moment -- the Sliders take refuge in what appears to be a small out-cropping of rock --

QUINN
Shut the video recorder off, man.
(then) Now.

Geraldo does so --

REMBRANDT
Damn. Geraldo Rivera is the fifth Slider.
(closes eyes)
When will this nightmare ever end.

QUINN
How much time before we Slide out of here Professor?

Arturo feels his pockets. The expression on his face tells them the bad news even before he says --

ARTURO
It's not here.

WADE
That's not funny, Professor.

ARTURO
I'm not joking: Who has the timer?

Blank faces --

(CONTINUED)

7

QUINN

You must have dropped it when you fell.

REMBRANDT

Out there? With that... thing?

QUINN

Guys. Cool heads.

(then)

Someone's got to go get it -- No way I'm spending the rest of my life in this place --

GERALDO

(to Wade)

What's he talking about?

WADE

Without the timer we won't be able to slide out of here.

(then)

And we have no idea how long we have before the next slide.

GERALDO

(as it registers)

Seriously?

QUINN

I'm going out there.

WADE

Quinn -- you can't.

QUINN

No choice. There might only be minutes till the next slide. We have to have that timer.

No one has an alternative --

ARTURO

Good luck, my boy.

(then)

I wish I could be of some assistance.

Wince. The collar zaps him --

ARTURO

Dammit, I didn't say I wanted to be killed!

(CONTINUED)

7

QUINN
It's okay. I know what you're trying to say.

As he goes --

ARTURO
(to Wade)
Damn these blasted truth collars!
Man was never meant to be deprived of the right to little white lies.

WADE
Don't look at me -- You were the one who said not to remove them.

ARTURO
Because it was a felony on that world!

ANGLE - CAVE MOUTH - QUINN, GERALDO, REMBRANDT lik e paratroopers about to take the plunge --

REMBRANDT
I don't see him.

QUINN
Here goes nothing.

REMBRANDT
Be careful.

QUINN

exits the cave, heads off down the hill. Geraldo's replacing his battery pack.

REMBRANDT
Are you crazy?

GERALDO
I'm a journalist.
(then)
Go tend to your friend.

And off he goes, out after Quinn.

CUT TO:

8 INT. CAVE - WADE

8

WADE
I'm gonna see if there's anything we can use to make a fire.

Goes --

REMBRANDT

approaches Arturo.

REMBRANDT
How're you feeling?

ARTURO
It still hurts like hell.

REMBRANDT
Unbelievable, huh?

ARTURO
Let's not panic.
(then)
The odds are very much in our favor. As long as we retrieve the timer, we'll be fine.

WADE

meanwhile's moved to the back wall of the cave. Reacts --

WADE
Guys?

Rembrandt, Arturo turn, see what she sees -- nearby, what looks to be lizard pelts lined up like Persian rugs.

A STACK OF WOOD

WADE
(to the approaching Rembrandt)
There are people here.

Off which, shocking realization --

CUT TO:

9 EXT. FOREST - QUINN

dogged by the newsman --

(CONTINUED)

9 CONTINUED:

9

GERALDO

With Quinn Mallory, the brilliant young inventor, as we make our way downhill in search of the missing timer.

Quinn turns to him, facing the camera and making a "you've gotta be kidding" face.

GERALDO

No, this is not Disneyland. This, my friends, is the real thing. A primeval jungle forest where even the insects are the size of a clenched fist!

QUINN

Boy, you really lay it on thick, don't you.

Geraldo turns off the camera and talks to Quinn as the younger man scours the jungle floor for the timer...

GERALDO

Give it to me straight - if you find this device of yours, you can send me home, right?
(knowing smile)
You were just trying to scare me with that line in the cave --

QUINN

(reacts)
-- Shut up for a second!
(tense pause)
Did you hear that?

The two men hold perfectly still - the ground is trembling now, the nearby jungle being thrown into chaos by a rapidly approaching animal.

ALLOSARUS'S POV - THROUGH DENSE FOLIAGE breaks through the trees --

TWO MEN

The one with the mustache is holding a metal device. As the men start to run -- trips, his camera goes flying.

GERALDO

GERALDO

ANGLE - QUINN

horrified --

QUINN

Geraldo!

The newsman's screams penetrate the jungle and -- settled in --

REMBRANDT'S making a fire --

REMBRANDT

(he's got matches)

Thank God for my handy Sliders' kit --

(then)

Never know when you're gonna need a book of matches.

WADE

Who do you think these people are, Professor?

ARTURO

It's puzzling. On our earth, man and dinosaur lived millions of years apart.

(then)

Since sliding is never time travel, the question is not what is man doing here... but what is a dinosaur doing in the twilight of the twentieth century?

WADE

Wasn't a comet supposed to have raised a dust cloud that killed all the dinosaurs? Maybe it missed the earth here.

10 CONTINUED:

10

ARTURO

Conceivable.

(then)

It would be interesting to know what form human kind has taken with the dinosaur the dominant species.

REMBRANDT

(reacts)

Uh... Guys?

WADE

What's wrong?

The other Sliders follow his eye line --

A HOLE IN' THE CAVE ROOF and peering down at them, an enormous, yellow eyeball.

ARTURO

Good God!

WADE

Go away!

She's got a rock, throws it, trying to frighten the monster away.

WADE

I said get out of here!

Rembrandt's on his feet now, brandishing a burning branch --

A VOICE (O.S.)

Put that down!

All turn --

A YOUNG WOMAN

dressed in jeans and forest service parka, complete with American flag sewn on the shoulder --

THE RANGER

Are you trying to blind her?

(off them)

Haven't you done enough damage already?

Off the Sliders, we --

FADE OUT.

END OF ACT ONE

ACT TWO

FADE IN:

11 INT. THE CAVE - DAY (IMMEDIATELY AFTER) - THE SLIDERS 11 have recovered from their shock and surprise enough to ask...

WADE

Who're you?

THE RANGER

(showing badge)

National Wildlife Preserve Ranger.

(then)

Your turn.

ARTURO

We, uhhh... I am Professor Maximilian Arturo. This is Mr. Brown and Ms. Welles.

THE RANGER

Pursuant to Federal Statutes 113-slash-24B and C, you are all three under arrest.

REMBRANDT

Arrest? For what?

THE RANGER

Trespassing on a Restricted Preserve. Destruction of a Protected Species, otherwise known as Poaching.

WADE

Poaching?

REMBRANDT

This is a... wildlife preserve? All of San Francisco?

THE RANGER

San Francisco National Dinosaur Preserve and Spotted Owl Sanctuary, if you give a damn.

ARTURO

Of course! If dinosaurs somehow survived, obviously they'd be an endangered species by now...

(CONTINUED)

11 CONTINUED:

11

WADE

OK... First of all, we're not poachers. But, more important, we've got a couple of friends out there...

THE RANGER

Not anymore you don't. I saw the remains of two men at the bottom of the hill.

(then)

One's in the clearing, another one about five hundred yards further in...

WADE

(f e a r i n g the worst)
Oh God...

ARTURO

Two men? Excuse me, Ranger, but... is it possible to... describe them?

THE RANGER

With what's left down there? You're lucky I can even tell you they were human beings.

Wade's stricken with grief --

ARTURO

All right, let's not panic.

Wade moves directly to...

12 EXT. THE MOUTH OF THE CAVE - DAY

12

Fearing the worst, she calls out.

WADE

Quinn!

Rembrandt comes up behind her --

WADE

I'm going out there, Rembrandt.

She starts to go, but Rembrandt grabs her.

REMBRANDT

No, you're not.

12 CONTINUED:

12

WADE

Let go of me...

REMBRANDT

Listen to me. It's suicide. That dinosaur is out there...

WADE

The Ranger got through. And if Quinn's alive, I can't leave him out there by himself...

REMBRANDT

Courage, sweetheart. Q-ball's proven his resourcefulness before.

(then)

If he is alive, maybe he's just waiting for it to get dark. Wade, still distressed, allows herself to be convinced --

CUT TO:

13 INT. THE CAVE - DAY - THE RANGER

13 is watching Arturo massage his ankle.

ARTURO

I hurt it trying to escape from that T-Rex out there.

THE RANGER

T-Rex? That's an Allosarus. What kind of poachers are you?

Wade and Rembrandt return --

WADE

Why do you keep saying that? We're not poachers.

THE RANGER

Right. You're not poachers. You somehow didn't notice the posted signs. Or the electrified fence. And then you had a pleasant little stroll of, oh, another hundred miles or so, after which you somehow tripped into that nest and broke her egg by accident...

13 CONTINUED:

13

ARTURO

Madame, we have a story to tell you. I admit beforehand, it will be difficult to believe...

THE RANGER

Save it for trial. An arrest team has already been dispatched from the Ranger Station in San Jose. They'll be here day after tomorrow to trek you out of here... if they can get you past that deranged, grief-stricken Allosarus.

She starts to turn away. Rembrandt steps forward to take her arm, to try to plead their case...

REMBRANDT

Lady, will you just listen --?

... Except his hand goes right through her arm.

Rembrandt and the others react, amazed.

REMBRANDT

What the hell?

THE RANGER

What-did you think? A real person could get past that Allosarus out there?

WADE

You're not real?

THE RANGER

Of course I'm real... a real person in San Jose. But I sent my hologram to monitor you until the arrest team arrives.

ARTURO

Madame -- As hard as it is to believe, we are scientists. We've discovered a way to... slide from one parallel dimension to another. We are here by accident. On most worlds, dinosaurs are extinct and this area, right here, is a major city.

(MORE)

13

ARTURO (cont'd)
We'll be leaving this world, but we've got to find out if our friend is still alive and retrieve a timing device that I dropped, probably right at the bottom of the hill...

Throughout this recitation, the Ranger just stares at him, contemptuous.

THE RANGER
Very inventive.

WADE
If we can prove what we're saying, about being Sliders, would you help us find our friend and get the timer?
(off her)
This thing around my neck. Have you ever seen one of them before?

THE RANGER
Yeah. In a Frederick's of Hollywood catalogue.

WADE
It's not a joke. It's a lie detector from the last world we were on. Anytime I lie, it sends an electrical shock through my body. You know your world has nothing like that, right?

THE RANGER
What's the point?

The Ranger looks at her like she's crazy. Wade gives a quick glance around at the other Sliders, then plunges right in.

WADE
I'm an animal poacher out to hurt
the dinosaurs.
(wince)
I cracked the dinosaur egg on purpose!

Another wince. Rembrandt tries to stop her.

REMBRANDT
Wade, stop! She doesn't believe you.

(CONTINUED)

13

WADE

(continuing)

I was born on this Earth.

A pretty good-sized shock racks Wade. The Ranger is unimpressed.

THE RANGER

Lady, all this proves is you know how to wince and twitch.

WADE

Why won't you believe us? We're human beings. You can't really care more for those... monsters out there...

ARTURO

Miss Welles...

WADE

...than you do people, can you? Don't you have a spark of compassion?

THE RANGER

Listen to me. Those "monsters" aren't the ones trying to eradicate an entire species. People are. Those "monsters" don't kill people and sell their penile bones to the Chinese as an aphrodisiac.

(then)

Do I care more about dinosaurs than you? Damn right I do.

ARTURO

Good job, Miss Welles. That certainly seems to have brought her over to our side.

REMBRANDT

Leave her alone, Professor...

WADE

Knock it off, Rembrandt.
(starting to lose it, on the edge of hysteria)
I'm so tired of you guys always worrying about "Little Wade."
I'm fine, OK?

REMBRANDT

Guys. C'mon -- we're losing it.

13

WADE

I don't want to die here,
Rembrandt!

(then)

I want Quinn back and I want to slide out of here!

ARTURO

Miss Welles, it's already getting dark. We've got to stay calm...

(then)

Listen to me -- if Quinn is alive, he'll find his way back here after dark... we have every reason to be hopeful.

(he gets zapped;

frustrated and angry)

And I say we should try not to let our emotions get out of hand until we get these godforsaken... millstones off our necks...

WADE

That's it. I'm going out there.

THE RANGER

No one's going anywhere!

REMBRANDT

You're a hologram, lady. Go to hell.

(then)

I'll go --

Rembrandt turns to the Ranger.

REMBRANDT

Where are the bodies you saw?

THE RANGER

Why? So you can destroy evidence?

REMBRANDT

I need to identify our friend.

THE RANGER

What's to identify? Who else could be down there?

REMBRANDT

(starts to tell her)

Never mind. You wouldn't believe that either.

13

He starts to go, but Wade stops him.

WADE

I'm coming, too.

REMBRANDT

No. Besides, I'm faster than you...

ARTURO

Miss Welles, listen to me. I appreciate it seems as if we're condescending to you. But we've already established that two is not safer than one.

Arturo and Rembrandt share a look.

ARTURO

Nothing is going to happen to Mr. Brown.

(wince)

He and Mr. Mallory will both be back very shortly.

(wince)

With the timer. And then we shall escape...

(meaning the Ranger)

...this overzealous harridan.

THE RANGER

Not a chance. I may be a hologram, but I can follow you anywhere. That's my job... and I'm good at it.

The three Sliders look among themselves, all of them picturing her face when the vortex appears.

THE RANGER

What's so funny?

ARTURO

We know a bit more than you do about your ability to follow us.

(to Rembrandt)

If you're not back in half-an-hour, bad ankle or no, I'm coming after you.

WADE

We're coming after you.

(CONTINUED)

13 CONTINUED: (6) 13

REMBRANDT

Deal.

And he goes to...

14 EXT. THE MOUTH OF THE CAVE - NIGHT - REMBRANDT 14 draws a deep breath and begins his descent.

CUT TO:

15 INT. THE CAVE - NIGHT - ARTURO AND WADE 15 are by the fire. The Ranger stands opposite.

THE RANGER

How's the ankle?

ARTURO

Stiffening up, I'm afraid.

(then)

Maybe if we could collect some more firewood. It's getting cold.

Wade starts to do so, as --

ARTURO

I don't pretend to fearlessness, Miss Welles.

WADE

I thought you just said everything was gonna be fine.

ARTURO

I could set a more stoic example without this collar around my neck.

(then)

Ironic, isn't it -- in the face of perhaps our gravest danger, to be stripped of the comforts of platitide and self-deception --

Off which --

The FOREST SOUNDS ahead of him are terrifying; the true symphony of Nature, red of tooth and fang:

A LONELY WOOLY MAMMOTH (O.S.)

moans in search of a mate.

SABER-TOOTH TIGERS (O.S.)

ravage a Brontosaurus carcass.

A PTERODACTYL

squawks (O.S.) as it struggles to free its spindly legs from the sucking sump of a tar pit.

It's safe to say this is one of the least favorite times Rembrandt has ever spent in his entire life. As he nears the tree line...

REMBRANDT
(softly, but firmly)
Q-ball?

As he approaches --

GERALDO'S MINICAM

and a tell-tale article of the newshound's clothing --

REMBRANDT

He'd just started at the computer store and he kept calling me "Ma'am" -- I'd known him a couple weeks, he gives me a lift home -- and there's my dog in the middle of the street in this incredible dogfight with a Pitbull.

(then)

He broke up the fight -- both dogs bit the hell out of him.

(then)

He stayed with me at the vets the whole time. He saved my dog.

(a smile)

We've spent the last year and a half with him, traveling to all these different worlds.

(then)

I'd give my life for him.

ARTURO

We all would.

(neither of them gets zapped)

The first time I saw him, he stood up in a lecture and asked me a very impertinent question. I was annoyed at him.

(a moment, then...)

It was only a week later I suddenly realized he was quite possibly correct. And then I was extremely annoyed at him.

(a smile)

You cannot imagine how excited I was to find a student with a mind as subtle as his.

(then...)

I'm certain he is all right, Miss Welles. I can feel it.

And there's no ZAP this time.

THE RANGER'S

been listening throughout. She's obviously a little unsettled. What kind of poachers are these?

REMBRANDT

(under his breath)

She said the body was just at the bottom of the hill someplace.

He turns around, starts back the way he thinks he came.

A SNAP

of a tree branch. The whoo whoo of an owl. Suddenly --

REMBRANDT

Uh oh --

He senses something right in back of him. Something huge. He doesn't even turn to look. He simply freezes, right where he is. Because...

THE ALLOSARUS

is right behind him. But can it see him in the dark? The beast certainly senses something: she even sniffs, trying to catch a whiff of her prey. And slowly swings her massive head down, toward Rembrandt.

It takes every ounce of Rembrandt's courage not to break and run.

Especially as the hot, smelly odor of dinosaur breath assails him, so close as to be overpowering.

But, just at the moment when it seems impossible that the dinosaur could possibly miss him...

A GUNSHOT (O.S.)

The dinosaur roars in pain and bewilderment.

WADE

Rembrandt!

Meanwhile...

REMBRANDT

WADE

REMBRANDT

Go, girl. Get out of here!

THE POACHER'S

gun's still trained on them, as he gives instruction --

POACHER

Take the belt and use it as a tourniquet. That should hold him --

(as Wade does...)

Loosen and tighten it every couple minutes. It'll keep the swelling down.

REMBRANDT

I want to thank you for saving my life, man. That was you, wasn't it?

POACHER

Yeah, well, you looked like you could use a little help.

(then)

Relax, Ranger. All I did was put a couple pock marks in your precious Allosarus.

THE RANGER

You better damn well hope that's all you did.

POACHER

Or what?

WADE

OhmiGod -- this is your cave, isn't it? Those are all your dinosaur hides back there.

THE RANGER

This man's responsible for killing dozens -- if not hundreds -- of some of the most endangered creatures on the planet.

24 CONTINUED:

24

POACHER

Yeah, well your little "endangered species" took a chunk out of my backside, too.

(then)

They killed my partner yesterday.

REMBRANDT

What?

POACHER

We tangled with a herd of velociraptors.

(then)

If it makes your buddies back at the Department of Interior feel any better, the final score was homo sapiens six, raptors one.

THE RANGER

Six? You killed six velociraptors?

POACHER

And they killed my back-up and left me stuck here with a bunch of rotting skins. So don't go all weepy for the little green bastards, okay?

After a pause --

POACHER

Which presents us with a certain opportunity --

(then)

The Englishman's leg needs medical attention -- A couple days in this cave, and he's gonna risk losing it.

(indicates)

Back there's another opening. It'll let us out near the river bed -- I got a canoe stashed back there. We can paddle your friend to the way-station at Burlingame.

Help me haul my goods out of here, I'll get you off this preserve.

WADE

What do you mean "goods"?

POACHER

-- I mean Raptor endocrine glands to help speed burn healing. Stegosaur lymph nodes for cancer, research, not to mention over a hundred pounds of sinew for heart surgery --

THE RANGER

What you really mean is Stegosaur sex organs for the Chinese to grind up as aphrodisiacs!

POACHER

Hey, a man's got a right to a little profit. I never said I was a saint.

THE RANGER

(to Sliders)

I have to warn you that any cooperation with this man will result in severe penalties, up to and including twenty five years incarceration in a federal penitentiary.

Under which, the Poacher's been rummaging his rucksack. The Ranger knows what's coming, begins a desperate plea --

THE RANGER

Help me.

(then)

Your cooperation can only help your chances with The Magistrate.

POACHER

Don't Forget to promise them the helicopter airlift.

The Sliders look to the Ranger -- will she?

THE RANGER

It's not impossible.

POACHER

It's a lie. They'll never bring in the chopper... Disrupts the mating habits of their gorgeous lizards.

THE RANGER HOLOGRAM breaks up into static and white light --

THE RANGER
No --!

REMBRANDT
How'd you do that?

POACHER
Your basic jamming signal.

Only way to deal with these damn holograms --

ARTURO
I'm fine. I assure you.

I'm just sitting too close to the fire.

Winces again. Rembrandt and Wade look on with real concern --

THE POACHER'S

overheard the whispering --

POACHER
What are you talking about back there?

REMBRANDT
Nothing. We're just checking on our friend.

POACHER
Ought'a be coning up on midnight.
(then)
You people might want to get some sleep.

REMBRANDT
(sotto; to the other)
Now or never, guys. What are we gonna do?

ARTURO
On the one hand, there is a murderous dinosaur standing between us and our timer.

On the other, sanctuary, assuming

WADE

WADE

REMBRANDT

It's our way out of here.

POACHER

QUINN

-- There was this low outcropping.
I squeezed myself in there where the dinosaur couldn't get me...

REMBRANDT

Damn, you had us worried.
(then)
The Ranger said she saw two bodies out there.

WADE

(solemn)
And now there are three.

Arturo's choker pops open and he removes it.

ARTURO

I never doubted you'd make it, my boy.
(then) God, it's great to be free of this contraption.

REMBRANDT

I second that. I'll never hold the unvarnished truth in quite the same

Wade is still in shock over her near escape.

WADE

we've got to get the timer -- and pray we haven't missed the slide.

Find anything in there?

REMBRANDT

Nothing to hold off a dinosaur.

Wade's collar is off --

REMBRANDT

I feel kind'a ghoulish rifling a dead man's belongings.

QUINN

I doubt if he'd have had any trouble going through yours...

Just then, the Sliders' attention is drawn by...

THE RANGER

walking in from the cave entrance, rather than just materializing.

ARTURO

Look who's back.

WADE

Where've you been?

THE RANGER

It's just not a high enough priority.

ARTURO
(sarc)
Of course. We die here so there can be baby Archaeopterys.

A discouraged Look among the Sliders. Then. ..

THE RANGER
I found your Timer. It's where you said, at the base of the hill, but it's almost completely hidden by leaves. The readout says you have a little less than an hour and a half left.

REMBRANDT
Thank God!

QUINN
What about the Allosarus?

THE RANGER
She's a patient hunter. She can wait you out for days.

QUINN
All this equipment. This guy must have something that can help us.

As he empties the contents of the rucksack on the floor --

THE RANGER
Those bottles...

Meaning a small packet of vials, each corked with a different colored stopper. Wade picks one up.

(to the Ranger)
Which is which?

THE RANGER
If I could smell, I could tell you.

REMBRANDT
(discouraged) That's kind of something we wouldn't want to guess wrong on, would we?

Meanwhile, Quinn has been examining the rest of the contents.

QUINN

Flares. And a rope with a Yeah -- they're almost at the bottom of the hill.

QUINN AND THE RANGER

44 EXT. FOREST - QUINN 44

clambering up the hillside as fast as he can --

45 EXT. HILLSIDE - ARTURO AND REMBRANDT 45

as they stumble down the hill, Arturo is leaning heavily on Rembrandt as they come.

Arturo slips, pulling Rembrandt down with him. The Professor is having trouble getting up again.

ARTURO

Go on! You can get there! I can't!

REMBRANDT

I'm not leaving here without you, you hear me? Get up, damn you! Get up!

Rembrandt pulls Arturo to his feet, and they start again. Meanwhile, Wade stops her pell-mell descent down the other part of the hill...

Just long enough to shoot off her final flare. Then she throws down the propellant gun and, still carrying the rucksack, runs like hell again.

Wade and Rembrandt help Quinn stagger to his feet, obviously still woozy from the blow he received in the last world.

QUINN

I... I think so.
(then) Unbelievable!

But the vortex has one last surprise. Just as it sputters its last gasp of existence...

It vomits out one last souvenir of their adventure...

THE SEVERED ARM OF THE ALLOSARUS still steaming from where it was cut off when the wormhole at the other end closed down about it.

It lands... KA-CHUNK... on the lawn of Golden Gate Park, directly in front of our four Sliders. And off their reactions we --
